

neema
foundation

Bringing hope through education

The Neema Foundation invites you to use
“Gateway into Reading” to bring hope to your community.

Gateway into Reading

- Cost efficient material teaching foundational reading and spelling in English.
- Tried and tested by qualified teachers for over 10 years.
- Proved highly effective with second language learners.
- Suitable for learners of all ages.
- Empowers second language teachers with new teaching skills.
- Creates a fulfilling opportunity for service and outreach in your organisation.
- Training provided for your teachers and volunteers.
- Suitable for one-on-one or group teaching.
- Develops self-confidence.

Make all the difference where it is needed the most.

Use “Gateway into Reading” to provide essential basics for literacy development in your community.

What do you need to start a Gateway into Reading programme in your church or organisation?

- A copy of our systematic material, containing over 880 easily duplicated pages.
- A professional teacher to head up your project.
- A printer/ photocopier and minimal stationery.

For additional information, visit our website www.neemafoundation.co.za

See our children's stories and extra information for educationalists.

If you have any further questions, please contact Monica on neemaadmin@neemafoundation.co.za

Partner with the Neema Foundation as we join hands to change the face of South Africa.